REQUEST FOR 30 DAY EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING RENDITION

The deadline for filing a business personal property rendition is April 15th but will be extended to May 15th if a business owner files a written request no later than April 15th. If the initial 30-day extension is timely requested, the chief appraiser may further extend the deadline an additional 15 days to June 1st, if requested in writing and if good cause is shown. Section 22.28 of the Texas Property Tax Code requires the chief appraiser to impose a 10 percent penalty on businesses that fail to timely render their tangible business personal property used to produce income.
